

U3A Quiz:

Friday (7).

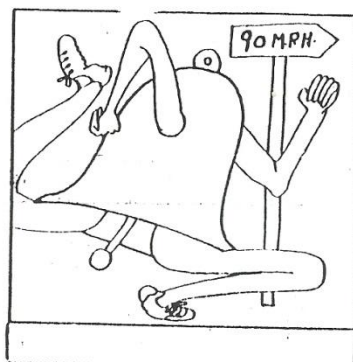

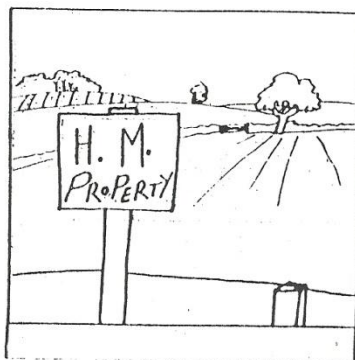

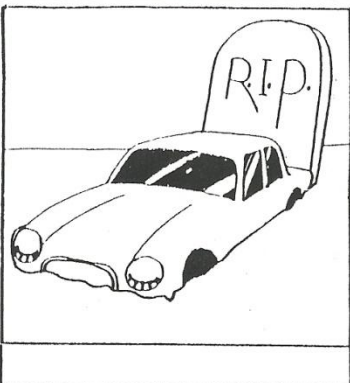

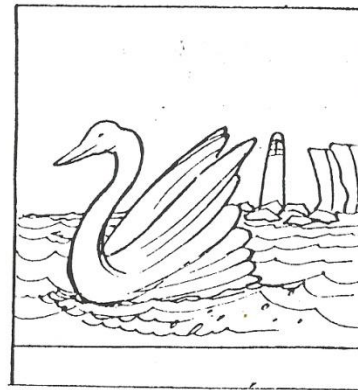

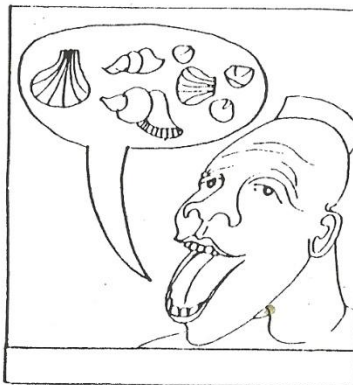

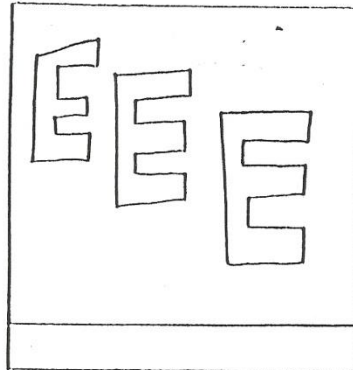

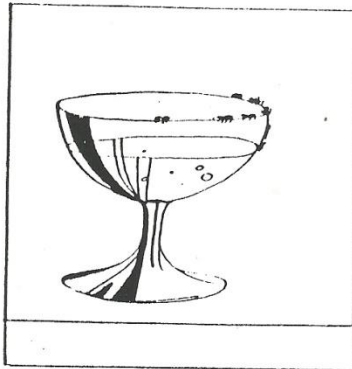

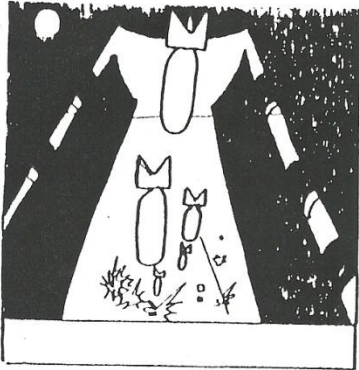

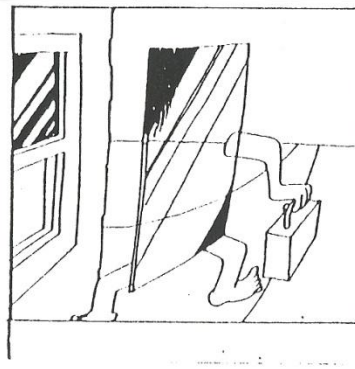

Well following three weeks of Ditloids, and three weeks of Dingbats, time for a change: with travel of all sorts still on the distant horizon and looking unlikely for the foreseeable future today's Friday Quiz is based on places you can only dream of visiting at the moment.

For the first part I have listed twenty four places from around the world which fall under the banner of "Tourist sights" – all you have to do is identify the city or location you would need to be in to visit the attraction named, whilst on the second page there are a further eleven visual clues to potential destinations. Answers on Monday.

1. Eiffel Tower	Paris.....
2. Manneken Pis	Brussels.....
3. Statue of Christ the Redeemer	Rio de Janeiro.....
4. The CNN Tower	Toronto.....
5. The Wailing Wall	Jerusalem.....
6. Kremlin	Moscow.....
7. Forbidden City	Beijing.....
8. Taj Mahal	Agra.....
9. Topkapi Palace	Istanbul.....
10. The Hermitage	St Petersburg.....
11. Colosseum	Rome.....
12. Basin Street	New Orleans.....
13. La Scala	Milan.....
14. Terracotta Army	Xian.....
15. St Wenceslas Square	Prague.....
16. Brandenburg Gate	Berlin.....
17. Anne Frank's House	Amsterdam.....
18. Mons Meg	Edinburgh.....
19. Casa Rosada	Buenos Aires.....
20. Doge's Palace	Venice.....
21. Table Top Mountain	Cape Town.....
22. Tivoli Gardens	Copenhagen.....
23. Sagrada Familia	Barcelona.....
24. Temple of Hatshepsut	Luxor

WHERE IN THE WORLD?

Identify these places from around the world from the pictorial clues.

Answers to pictures:

Bombay *

Cairo

Khartoum

Bournemouth

Antrim

Seychelles

Queensland

Glasgow

Tripoli

Swansea

Belfast

* Yes I know it's now called Mumbai but it's only a game!!