

Quiz 16: Dingbats

Well after a few weeks of themed Quizzes (and following a couple of requests) it's time for a change and this week I'm going to test your brain cells by some more Dingbats. As a reminder a Dingbat is defined as "a visual word puzzle from which a well-known phrase or saying can be identified".

For example:

GROUND LONDON

Would hopefully lead you to London Underground.

I hope these proved thought provoking and kept you entertained – the answers are at the bottom.

(1)

(2)

FROM TO	BEND DRAW DRAW DRAW
BRING EFIL EFIL	HISTORY HISTORY HISTORY HISTORY
M CE M CE M CE	PING WILLOW
YOUNG YOUNG DRINK DRINK	DIAL

ISOCKT

HeHeHeLIUM

KLONG9

DIFFE RENCE

FITIVO

ENTURY

EOMITONS

PLANS
PLASN
PLSNA
PLNSA

STEP PETS PETS

BUSINE

AuHurry

FeDrapes

Answers:

From High to Low

Bring back to life

Three Blind Mice

Too Young to Drink

Put a sock in it

Long in the tooth

Fit For Nothing

Mixed Emotions

One step forward,
two steps back

Gold rush

Bend over backwards

History repeating itself

Weeping Willow

Laidback

Laughing Gas

Split the difference

Long time no see

A change of Plans

Unfinished Business

Iron Curtain